SAMUEL K. WILLIAMS.

Ursuline Community, Mount Benedict, Charleston, Mass.
—This beautiful and extensive establishment is situated about two and a half miles from Boston, upon a delightful and healthy spot, commanding one of the most beautiful prospects in the United States. In it young ladies are received from the age of six, to that of fourteen.

The plan of education pursued by the Ladies of this Community, is extensive—comprehending all those attainments which may be found necessary, useful, and ornamental in society. Devoted by their institute, to the education of female youth, they spare no pains to adorn their minds with useful knowledge, and to form their hearts to virtue.

To attain this two-fold object, their first care is to instruct them in the great and sublime truths of Religion—to endeavor to impress them with its salutary maxims—and to point out the duties it imposes on them towards their God, their parents, and superiors, towards other members of society, and towards themselves.

The school consists of two Departments, distinguished by the appellations of Senior and Junior Class, each occupying separate apartments, and having no communication with the other. The Young Ladies in the Junior Department are taught the common branches of education—such as Reading—Writing—Grammar—Arithmetic—Geography—History, ancient and modern—and particular attention is paid to Orthography. They are also taught all kinds of plain and fancy Needlework, and the Extra Branches, if required. When sufficiently advanced, they are removed to the Senior Department.

Here are taught plain and ornamental Writing—Composition both in prose and poetry—ancient, modern, and natural History—Chronology—Mythology—the use of the Globes—Astronomy—Rhetoric—Logic—natural and moral Philosophy—Chemistry—Astronomy—Geometry and Botany—every kind of useful and ornamental Needlework—Japanning—Drawing, in all its varieties—Painting in Oil Colours—also, Painting on Velvet, Satin, and Wood—and the beautiful style of Mezzotint and Pencil Painting. Music on different Instruments is likewise taught.

The Young Ladies in this Department may also attend to Cookery during the last quarter of their residence in the Institute. They will possess every advantage in this respect, being superintended by a person, who, to a perfect knowledge of the art, has joined many years' experience—the charge is $20.

To accelerate the advancement of the Young Ladies in their respective classes, every means is resorted to, which is calculated to act upon the youthful mind, in order to excite and maintain therein, a laudable emulation; such as distinction of places; daily marks; weekly repetitions; privileges granted to application and merit; honorable mention, made every month, of those whose assiduity in their studies, and excellence in good conduct, deserve approbation; premiums distributed at the end of the year, &c.

The annual Examination takes place in the month of June, commencing on the 29th and continuing three days. At the close, two Young Ladies are crowned, one in the Senior, and the other in the Junior Class; the former receiving, at the same time, a gold medal, and the latter a silver one. The Young Ladies shall have been in the Institution, one year, at least; during which time, they must have distinguished themselves, by their amiable deportment, general good conduct, and excellence in their studies.

The Ladies who reside over this Establishment, are scrupulously careful to supply those placed under their care, with abundant and wholesome food; and to watch over their health as well as their morals, with all the solicitude of maternal tenderness—Clothing and needlework are rigorously attended to. The garden adjoining the Establishment, to which the Young Ladies always have access, during the hours of relaxation, is beautifully laid out, and consists of two acres of land. Besides this, they are allowed, on days of recreation, to extend their walks over the whole farm which embraces twenty-seven acres; always, however, under the immediate supervision of one, or more of the Ladies. During the summer season, they are allowed two acres of land, which are divided into flower gardens, and are cultivated by themselves.

Every Young Lady, on entering the Establishment, must be furnished with the following articles:—Two trunks, six towels, one knife and fork, one silver goblet, one silver desert and tea spoon, and two pairs sheets and pillow cases.

For the summer uniform, each young lady must be provided with two dark state colored ponceau dresses—two pairs hose, of the same color—two black bombazet trousers—two white dresses—four pairs white hose—one light blue satin cape and sash—a blue belt—two black silk aprons—a garden bonnet, and apron, with long sleeves, both made of slate colored cambric; and a regular hair, trimmed with black ribbon, and the winter uniform, each young lady is to be provided with two black Circassian dresses—four pairs black cotton hose—(jet black is preferred to blue black, on account of durability); a dark blue merino cloak; and a silk hood of the same color. [This article has been changed, varying the material, according to the season.]

Parents being ever sensible to the happiness and welfare of their children, and anxious to know, even the smallest details of what concerns them, every three months, Bulletins will be sent, relating to their health, the extent of their application, and their progress in study. The relations of the winter uniform, each young lady is to be provided with two black Circassian dresses—four pairs black cotton hose—(jet black is preferred to blue black, on account of durability); a dark blue merino cloak; and a silk hood of the same color. [This article has been changed, varying the material, according to the season.]

Three months' notice of the removal of each young lady is requested. No boarder is allowed to sleep out, except in case of illness. Permission to dine out is granted once a month. No visitors are allowed on Sundays. The religious opinions of the children are not interfered with. A vacation of six weeks is allowed every year, commencing on the 1st of July, and terminating on the 15th of August.
